

ENCOUNTERING EXCLUSION
Primary Education Policy Watch

The Innovators/ Unnayan Onneshan, an independent not-for-profit registered trust, aims to contribute to innovation in development through research, advocacy, solidarity and action. The mission of the Innovators is to champion innovation for exploring paths of social transformation towards a more sustainable and just world. The purpose of the Innovators is to be a catalyst for the development of innovative and critical approaches to development and is to demonstrate how human ingenuity can be applied to improve the well being of the environment, economy and society.

The Innovators works as a network of concerned individuals at the local, national and global levels in the search for solutions to endemic poverty, injustice, gender inequality and environmental degradation. Development philosophy and models of the Innovators focus on pluralistic, participatory and sustainable and seek to challenge the narrow theoretical and policy approaches derived from unitary models of development.

The Innovators, registered at 311, Ahmadnagar, Dhaka, Bangladesh, houses at House 81/A, Road 9/A, Dhanmondi, Dhaka, Bangladesh with European representation at 15 Bearing Close, Chigwell, Essex, IG7 4NE United Kingdom Tel (88) 02-8158274; Fax: (88) 02-8159135, E-mail: info@unnayan.org, Website: www.unnayan.org

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The present volume Encountering Exclusion: Primary Education Policy Watch is an output of the Innovators' research programme, Primary Education Policy Watch.

The volume has immensely benefited from the participants of the brainstorming sessions that tailored the content and methodology of research. The volume has been enriched by the inputs received from two designated reviewers, Professors Muzaffer Ahmed and Muhammad Samad. Messers Jahangir Kabir, Lutfunnahar and Aminur Rahman have put in a lot of hard work in terms of providing research assistance and also in organising the brainstorming sessions while Mr. Azmol Hossain provided administrative support.

The present volume received grant from the Commonwealth Education Fund (CEF) jointly administered by ActionAid (lead agency in Bangladesh), Save the Children UK, and Oxfam.
